Local Editor.
Mrs. Q. D. Williford, who has been quite sick, is much better.

We hear that Mr. Younger Robertson does not like the price of cotton at present.

It is said that Dr. Pope and Senator Irby will be at the Ridgeway speaking on the 27th.

Minnaugh's cut on all fine dress goods is attracting the attention of the ladies in the Boro.

There were six white and twenty-five colored teachers before the board of examiners on Friday.

Dr. B. J. Quattlebaum was re-elected moderator of the Baptist Convention for the ensuing year.

There will be no service at the A. R. P. Church here on Sunday next, as the pastor will be absent at Synod.

Do you want to buy a cloak or cape? Caldwell & Ruff have a handsome lot at bottom prices.

There will be a floral fair on the 31st of this month. The round trip from Winoosboro is $1.50; good for three days.

The Reform County Executive Committee held a meeting in town on Friday. Nothing of importance was transacted, so we are informed.

Mr. D. H. Robertson presented our reporter with some second crop apples. They were fine in flavor, equally as good as any first crop we have seen.

Not to fatigue you, but we beg to impress upon you the fact that Landerdale is selling millinery cheaper than ever before. Hats sold at almost any price.

Dr. Grier's many friends here will regret to learn that he reached home quite sick after finishing his work in the interest of Erskine College. It is thought that a relapse of malaria fever is the trouble.

The State Fair promises to be a grand success this year. The railroad fare from Winoosboro is $1.35 round trip, the entrance to the fair grounds will cost 50 cents, making $1.85 to go, see the fair and return.

Some evil disposed person shot a fine hound belonging to Mr. Arthur Owens on Thursday night. Mr. Owens was hunting and his dog was not far from him when shot. The party was hailed but made no reply so it is not known who did it. It happened on this side of the Timm's place near town.

Remember that Landerdale is headquarters for ladies' wraps. These goods were bought low down and will be sold the same way. Won't you call and take a look?

Mr. Strother Ford, one of the oldest citizens from the Mifflord section, was in town Saturday. He says he sold his cotton for five cents, but still this is not the lowest he has ever sold it; that he got only 34 cents for the first two bales he ever sold in 1860. They were sold in Columbia.

Mr. R. W. Phillips is speaking to you this morning through our columns. He offers to keep the sun out of your face for less, or not any more, money than you can have it done for in Columbia or Augusta. In short he has a full line of curtains, curtain poles and fixtures which he offers to the trade. Call and examine and he will sell you.

Minnaugh has a few more of those nice pants patterns left. Go and see them.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Mr. W. D. Douglass to Miss Florida P. Wright on the 24th of this month. Mr. Douglass, the editor of THE NEWS AND HERALD and a popular rising young attorney at the bar here, is too well known to need any introduction to our readers. Miss Wright is one of Winoosboro's most charming and attractive young ladies, a person of noble disposition and sterling character, and is greatly admired by a large circle of friends and acquaintances.

Read the advertisement of J. O. Boag. He is offering for sale anything you want from a piece of lace to a four-horse wagon. His stock is full of such things as everyone will need. The times are hard, but Mr. Boag says he will make prices easy. He only asks you to inspect his stock. He has fine cooking stores and if you have not an ear for performing on this instrument then buy an organ and play 'till you need recreation which you may have by purchasing a handsome survey. Read the advertisement and give him a call.

Everything you need in the millinery line can be found at Landerdale's. Hats for big folks and little folks, old and young, far or lean—as pretty a line as we have ever offered von. Come and look at it.

Constipation and sick headache permanently cured and piles prevented by Japanese River Pellets; especially adapted to children's use. Winoosboro Drug Store.

Highest of all in Leavening Power.—Latest U. S. Gov't Report.

Royal Baking Powder

ABSOLUTELY PURE

MARRIED.—Miss Amelia McFadden, of Chester, who went to school here to Prof. Withrow, was married on Wednesday to Dr. J. B. Wise. They will re-ide in Chester.

CALLED ON A SAD MISSION.—Mrs. Kinck received a telegram on Thursday to come at once to see her sister, Mrs. Foran, who was stricken with paralysis and in a critical condition. She left for Charleston at once.

ITCH on human, mange on horses, dogs and all stock, cured in 30 minutes by Woodford's Sanitary Lotion. This never fails. Sold by W. E. Aiken, druggist, Winoosboro, S. C.

WHAT DISEASE IS IT?—We learn that cattle are dying in great numbers near Lebanon Church. Mr. W. S. Stevenson has lost twelve head, and he says that within a mile square of him probably $500 worth have died.

Ladies, you should call at Minnaugh's and look at those silk velvets at cost.

ADV. Q. D. WILLIFORD, Manager.

BOTH SUMMONED TOGETHER.—Barrell Moore, known as Barrell Buchanan, and his wife Patience were both buried in the same grave on Monday evening. Barrell died at 3 o'clock Sunday evening and his wife at 5 o'clock Monday morning.

CUT IN A GIN.—A son of Mr. Thomas Richardson, near Nelson's, came to town early on Friday morning to secure medical attention. He was cleaning off the saws of the gin when some one turned the engine over by hand to be ready to start and the teeth caught him. It was only a slight flesh wound however.

THE SIGN OF THE GOLDEN STAR.—In our advertising columns Mr. M. L. Kinard asks you to inspect his stock and prices when you come to Columbia. This firm has moved to 138 Main street, the sign of the Golden Star marks the place. Mr. Kinard is an old, experienced man at the business and should be posted—he claims to be. Read his "ad." this morning.

PEANUTS WILL PAY.—Mr. Thos. F. Davis, manager of the South Carolina Mining Co. at Killians, showed our reporter one bush of pinders which looked like it might have had from a pint to a pint and a half of nuts on it. Mr. Davis has one acre planted and from the way they have been turning out he thinks he will make over one hundred bushels. The tops make good rough food for cattle; they will eat it readily and the pinder is good hog food. The pinder is easy to make and does not cost much in proportion to the return. One hundred bushels of pinders at 50 cents per bushel is $50 and this beats cotton. Of course the market would soon be glutted if everyone planted them, but they would pay a stock food. Others should try the pinder culture.

Johnson's Pleasant Compound Cod Liver Oil with hypophosphites Malt, Iron, Quinine, Potassium and Strichnia is an internal tonic, strengthening the digestive organs and tones up the nerves. Pints $1.00. Winoosboro Drug Store.

WHAT IS IT?—Mr. John A. Desportes, Jr., manager of "The Hub," has quite a curiosity called the jumping bean. It resembles a section of a pod of cotton in shape and is about the color of a hickory nut. It is very light and when you lay it down it will commence to jump and turn over like a thing of life. What is it? It must be a ginseng, but is called a jumping bean. We have never seen anything like it; but "they say" a man who carries these sort of things is a conjuror. At any rate the darkeys don't like to get near John when he is handling it. But John says there is a greater wonder than this in "The Hub" and if you come up he will show you something that is perfectly wonderful and won't conjure either. It is the low price they are offering goods at, he says, which is the greatest wonder to all who come in. Read their "ad." and go to see the wonder is all they ask.

NOTICE.
Claims held by me, as assignee, will be put in judgment after November 1. Don't forget the date.

G. W. RAGSDALE, Assignee.

OFF FOR SYNOD.
Mrs. W. H. Flemmiken and Mrs. Jas. A. Brice left yesterday for Troy, in Abbeville county, where the meeting of the A. R. P. Synod will be held this week.

Rev. C. E. McDonald and Mr. T. H. Ketchin will leave to-day.

There is more Catarrh in this section of the country than all other diseases put together, and until the last few years was supposed to be incurable. For a great many years doctors pronounced it a local disease, and prescribed local remedies, and by constantly failing to cure with local treatment, pronounced it incurable. Science has proven catarrh to be a constitutional disease and therefore requires constitutional treatment. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, Ohio, is the only constitutional cure on the market. It is taken internally in doses from 10 drops to a teaspoonful. It acts directly on the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. They offer one hundred dollars for any case it fails to cure. Send for circulars and testimonials.

HANAHAN-BRATTON.

The manoeuvres of several of the young gentlemen of our town on last Tuesday evening indicated some meaning to the eye of a newspaper reporter, and the object was readily discerned. Arrangements were being made by them to accompany Dr. R. B. Hanahan on a joyous voyage to our sister town of York whether he had previously traveled on quite a number of occasions alone, preferring then to keep his own counsel, and especially so with reference to the news gatherer. The purpose of his visits was to pick one of the fairest flowers of York to be transplanted on the hills of old Fairfield. He was on his way to be united in marriage to Miss Hattie E. Bratton, the only daughter of Dr. J. R. Bratton, of York.

The party, consisting of Dr. R. B. Hanahan, Messrs. H. L. Elliott, Jr., J. W. Hanahan, C. K. Douglass and H. Hanahan, left here at 4:30 Wednesday morning and were joined at Blackstock by Mr. Frank Withers. They breakfasted at Chester and reached the town of York at 10 o'clock. At the depot they were met by Dr. Bratton, a brother of the bride, and were at once quartered at the Three C's hotel.

The beautiful ceremony of the Episcopal Church was performed at the home of the bride's father, Dr. J. R. Bratton, promptly at 6 o'clock.

Rev. Theodore Bratton, rector of the Episcopal Church at Spartanburg, walking in advance, was followed by Dr. Hanahan and Mr. H. L. Elliott, Jr., as best man. The bride, leaning on the arm of her father, was followed by Miss Virginia Bratton, as maid of honor, while the strains of the wedding march were vibrating to the touch of Miss Daisy Hart. The contracting parties took their position on a hair rug over which extended a beautiful arch of overgreens and flowers, the pillars of which rested on the floor. After the ceremony was concluded the bride and groom knelt on two white stools while divine blessing, guidance and protection was asked by the minister.

The bride wore a dress of heavy white tulle silk, with train, bodice of pearl lace and pointed lace. She carried in her hand a bouquet of bride roses and a French embroidered handkerchief, formerly belonging to her mother; ornaments, pearls and diamonds.

Miss Virginia Bratton wore a handsome dress of pink brocade silk, trimmed with pink net and ribbon; jewelry, opals.

The happy couple were the recipients of many beautiful and handsome presents. After the entire ceremony was concluded, cake and wine and fruit were served, and the hospitality of the house of the bride was enjoyed to a high degree by all present.

The bride and groom, accompanied by their party, left York at 9 p. m., took supper in Chester and arrived here at the early hour of 2 o'clock Thursday morning, where a heartiest welcome is extended to the bride in her new home. She has visited Winoosboro several times and made many friends and admirers during her stay here.

The affair was a quiet wedding, only a limited number of friends and relatives being present.

BLOODY FIGHT AT RIDGEWAY.
Special to the State.

RIDGEWAY, Oct. 21.—David J. Weir and James Orr fought yesterday near their homes, seven miles east of Ridgeway. In the afternoon, parties who came to town and had seen the fight said it was not ended. This morning, Weir and Robertson walked to a coal kiln near Weir's house and met there Orr, his brother and a man named Ashford. A few words passed when Weir and Orr both drew pistols, firing simultaneously three shots each at close range. They finally clinched. Weir was stunned and fell. Orr bearing his face beyond recognition.

Weir was shot in the thigh, hand and chin, the latter ball lodging in the throat. He couldn't speak until Dr. Orr wired the broken chin and he is now in a critical condition. Orr's side was grazed, but he was not hurt beyond yesterday's bruises. The parties are white and it is feared that there will be trouble.

We learned after seeing this account that Weir had been accused by Orr of circulating a damaging report against him, and it seems that nothing but a fight would settle it. So they agreed to fight fair (this was about a week ago) but we hear that Weir hit Orr with a pistol and got the best of the fight, but they met on Sunday and, our information is that Weir renewed the hostilities again and the shooting resulted.

Weir SHOT ALIVE.
KILLIANS, S. C., October 22—4 p. m. Special to The News and Herald.

Weir is at Ridgeway and was alive at 12 o'clock, but little probability of recovery. Ball in the neck not definitely located.

MURDERED FOR MONEY.
On last Saturday evening as Robert Copes, treasurer of Orangeburg County, was returning to the Court House with the tax money, he was shot from ambush about nine miles from town. The parties failed to get all the money he had; there was five hundred and sixty dollars on his person that they failed to find. He was robbed of a satchel which had some money and his pistol in it. The whole county turned out to pursue the murderer and it is not unlikely that they will be successful. Mr. Copes was a brother of Mr. Fred Copes who once lived here.

ORANGEBURG, S. C., October 22. Special to The News and Herald.

4:30 p. m.—There are no new developments of a positive character; several parties are suspected; detectives are working up all possible clues.

WILL NOT GO BACKWARD.

To the Democrats of Fairfield County: The Democratic party in Fairfield county, on the 25th day of August last, believing that the time had come when a fight for principles must be made, nominated a ticket, both for the Legislature and for county officers. That ticket was put in the field to make the fight to the finish. Each individual whose name appears on the ticket pledged himself before nomination to support, maintain and stand by the doctrine and principle of the Democratic party as formulated and announced by the party both State and National in its various platforms. And they further pledged themselves as men and Democrats to stay in the race until the voters of Fairfield county had expressed their approval or disapproval of their candidacy. That ticket was in the field on the 25th of August, is in the field now, and is in the field to stay until the general election on the 6th day of November next.

As County Chairman, I have been informed at various times that the Populist party in this county is industriously circulating a report that at the last moment the Democratic ticket will be withdrawn from the race. True Democrats need have no uneasiness on this score. There will be no withdrawal. We will fight the good fight to the end, and elect our candidates over our Populist adversaries who are masquerading as Democrats. It behooves all true men to be prepared to support to the utmost the men who represent the principles of true Democracy. Let not the vile slanders so diligently and persistently circulated, nor the abusive epithets so freely indulged in by the Populist either mislead or deter you from doing your duty as good, conscientious citizens. Their mendacity is only equalled by their lack of political principle, and is indicative of the spirit in which they find themselves that they resort to such arid snappidity in the vain hope of driving the Democratic banner from the field.

Let every one who has the present interest in the future welfare of our country and State at heart rally around that banner on the 6th of November and exercise the God-given right of thinking for himself and cast his ballot for much abused Democracy and against Populism. Respectfully,

JAS. W. HANAHAN,
County Chairman.
